ISAAC BERNHEIMER.

Mr. Isaac Bernheimer, a Fellow of the American Geographical Society since the year 1859, and for the past nineteen years a member of the Council, died suddenly at Saratoga, N. Y., on the 23d of July last.

Mr. Bernheimer was born in Bavaria in 1812, and early in life removed to this country and entered into business in Philadelphia. In 1849 he established himself in New York as a manufacturer and merchant, and retired from business in 1873 with an ample fortune.

He was a man of amiable disposition and simple tastes, liberal-minded and just in his dealings, and an unostentatious contributor to many charities.
